City Attorney Bailey received word Thursday morning from Bowersock, Fizzell and Rhodes, attorneys, representing the bonding house of Prescott, Wright, Snider Co., of Kansas City, who purchased the Sikeston municipal bonds for a municipal light and power plant, advising that a new election would probably be necessary. They are asking B. H. Charles of St. Louis, to advise the shortest course to pursue in order to place the matter before the State Supreme Court as to their validity.

Judge Antoine LeGrand, 67, died at his home at the east edge of Benton at 10:00 p. m., May 27, 1930. ## NEW MADRID COUNTY GIRLS START 4-H CLUBS

A number of Parma girls met last Friday afternoon at the gymnasium and organized two 4-H Clubs.

County Agent Scott M. Julian, explained the different projects and also told how to organize a 4-H Club.

The girls then decided to organize a Supper Club with Mrs. Floyd Gale as local leader, and a Garment Making Club with Miss Husted as local leader.

Some of the members plan to attend the club camp at Irondale June 2nd to 5th. The next meeting will be held Friday of this week at the gymnasium and all mothers are cordially invited to be present.

The officers elected for the Supper Club are: Gladys Brown, President; Elene Heddy, Vice-President; Charlotte Gee, Secretary-Treasurer; Wynon Heddy, Cheer Leader; Kathleen Gee, Reporter; Mrs. Floyd Gale, leader.

The two Morehouse Supper Clubs held their Achievement Days last Tuesday and Wednesday. Each Club had a very attractive program with snappy demonstrations by the girls.

The group of older girls each demonstrated how to prepare some dish, explaining while so doing. The other group did not have a preparation of food demonstration, but demonstrated the proper method of setting the table, interspersed with recitations.

Pins were presented those girls completing by County Agent Scott M. Julian. Miss Frances Rauch, the leader for both Clubs, is to be congratulated upon having done a very fine piece of work, and the girls themselves deserve congratulations for the manner in which they carried on the work.

Fifteen of the New Madrid girls have organized themselves into a 4-H Garment Making Club, with Mrs. Scott M. Julian as local leader.

Some of the girls will attend the summer camp at Irondale, beginning the second of June, and work on the sewing project will begin after the camp is finished.

The Standard $1.50 per year.

Jellied Salads Are Popular

By CAROLINE B. KING

JELLIED salads are always popular. On warm days I like them because they are so cool, on cool days because they are so colorful—and in between times because I adore making them. Here's my best. I call it:

Macedoine Salad
I use those delightful peas and carrots that are sold in glass jars in making my pretty salad; it is so nice to be able to see the colors and the sizes of the vegetables. Soften one tablespoonful of gelatin in a quarter of a cupful of cold water and add one cupful of the liquor from the peas, bring to the boiling point and stir in half a teaspoonful of salt and three tablespoonfuls of granulated sugar, a quarter of a cupful of lemon juice and two tablespoonfuls of juice from the jar of pineapple. Cool almost to the point of congealing and add a quarter of a cupful of carrots cut in small pieces, one cupful of peas and two tablespoonfuls of pimiento shredded coarsely and half a cupful of shredded pineapple. Stir gently and pour into individual molds. At serving time unmold on plates bordered with cress and garnish with mayonnaise and stars cut from the pimientos. It does look entrancing when it's all dressed up and ready to serve with tiny toast-ed cheese crackers!

COTTON BELT BUS SERVICE PASSES THRU SKESTON

Operating with new 35-passenger busses with reclining chairs, the Southwestern Transportation Company, a subsidiary of the Cotton Belt railway, Sunday, June 1, will inaugurate fast service between St. Louis and Memphis.

The principal points served enroute are Pickneyville, Murphysboro, Carbondale and Cairo in Illinois; Charleston, Skeston, New Madrid, Mayti and Caruthersville Junction in Missouri, and Blytheville, Luxora, Osceola and Wilson in Arkansas. At Memphis, Tenn., the Cotton Belt makes direct connection with its own lines Southwest to Brinkley, Stuttgart, Pine Bluff, Camden, Magnolia and Texarkana in Arkansas. A connecting line operates from Texarkana to Shreveport. Continuing Southwest from Texarkana, Cotton Belt busses serve Mt. Pleasant, Tyler, Corsicana, Waco, Greenville, Dallas, Ft. Worth and El Paso in Texas, terminating at Las Cruces, New Mexico, where connection is made with the Imperial Stages to Phoenix, San Diego and Los Angeles.

The return service from the Southwest affords connections at Memphis for Birmingham, Atlanta, Chattanooga, Nashville, Louisville and points East. At St. Louis connections are made for Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

SKESTON BUS LINE PERMIT IS REVOKED

Jefferson City, May 27.—Two bus line permits for Southeast Missouri lines were revoked today by the State Public Service Commission because the companies failed to file the legal fees required by the bus law.

One permit canceled was that issued to Sunnyland Stages, Inc., to operate as an interstate line from Birds' Point to Skeston on Highway 60 and from Skeston to the Missouri-Arkansas line on Highway 61. The other was a permit issued to J. E. Oliver to operate busses from Cape Girardeau to Van Buren on Highways 34 and 61.

JOAN CRAWFORD LEARNS USE OF COWBOY GARB IN "MONTANA MOON"

If Joan Crawford didn't gain anything else during the several weeks she spent on San Jacinto Mountain cattle ranges during filming of her latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all-talking vehicle, "Montana Moon", she at least learned the whys and wherefores of the traditional American cowboy regalia.

Among the things she learned is that the five-gallon sombrero is worn to protect the eyes from sun glare, hail and rain, its wide brim affording protection to both head and shoulders; that the bandana is knotted about the throat to serve as a handkerchief and to protect the mouth and nose from alkali particles in dust storms and roundups; that chaps are worn not only for warmth and to shield the legs from briars and brush, but to prevent denim trousers from being torn and, most important, to serve as an armor against rattlesnake bites.

Miss Crawford was also informed that the cowpunchers wear high-heeled leather boots because they prevent chafing, the odd-shaped heels clinching the feet into the stirrups for hard service; that revolvers are not carried for protection against "bad men" but for the purpose of killing maimed steer or horses and to be used to check maddened beasts in stampedes; and finally, that lassoes were used not to string up cattle thieves but to rope steers that are to be picked out from herds for various reasons and to bind them for branding.

The new production, filmed almost entirely outdoors, 5000 feet above sea level, was directed by Mal St. Clair from an original story by Sylvia Thalberg and Frank Butler. Included in Miss Crawford's supporting cast are: Ricardo Cortez, Dorothy Sebastian, Cliff Edwards, Benny Rubin, Karl Dane and Lloyd Ingraham.

Oats should be cut when they are in the hard dough stage. If cut before this time, they shrivel in curing and are light in weight. If allowed to get fully ripe before cutting, some of the crop shatters and is lost in harvesting. When a large acreage is to be harvested, it is advisable to begin cutting soon after the grain passes out of the milk stage. If the grain is ripe or in the hard dough stage, it can be placed at once in round shocks, which should be capped to prevent damage from rain or dew. If the grain is green or if the bundles contain many weeds, they should be allowed to cure for a few hours before shocking, or should be put into long shocks.

DENTIST TARRD AND FEATHERED FLEES FROM TOWN

Hammond, La., May 27.—D. S. L. Newson, 30-year-old dentist with a fashionable clientele, fled from town today after a warning from a crowd of men who had tarred and feathered him into the principal street.

The men charged the dentist with improper conduct with a prominent married woman, whose identity officials refused to reveal.

Among the active women in the United States is Mrs. George Waller, aged 94, of Burlington, Wis. She has been chairman of the public health association of the city for the past 20 years.

Alfalfa should be cut for hay when the plants are well in bloom. Cutting at an earlier stage of growth gives hay of a higher protein content, but cutting nearer full bloom keeps the stand in better condition. As the leaves contain about two-thirds of the feeding value of the alfalfa plant, hay should be put in the stack or mow with as many leaves as possible. This can be done only with a minimum amount of handling after the hay begins to dry. It should be raked before it becomes brittle and most of the curing done in windrow or shock.

BULL MOOSE SEEM TO LIKE TOWN OF DULUTH

Duluth, Minn., May 26.—Four bull moose came to town Sunday, and town is no place for bull moose. One of them got killed in traffic, and the others made tracks from whence they came.

The moose jumped in front of William Patterson's automobile last night and was run down before Patterson could stop the machine. The animal was about two years old and weighed 200 pounds.

If moose keep coming to Duluth, steps may have to be taken.

In the Fourteenth century it was not considered respectable to speak English owing to the superior social prestige of Norman-French.

If you have a garden don't throw away coffee grounds, banana skins and similar material. These things have fertilizing value and may be added to the compost heap. Add cull vegetables and weeds. The basis of the compost heap may be sod or leaves. Animal manure should be added if available. In addition to waste matter, the compost heap will be helped by bone meal, superphosphate, or phosphate rock. Addition of lime or wood ashes will hasten the decomposition.

ESTIMATES MISSOURI MELON ACREAGE AT 9460 ACRES

Jefferson City, May 27.—The Missouri watermelon acreage planted for 1930 is 9460 acres, against 5700 acres last year and 5000 in 1928.

The crop still reflects the unfavorable conditions prevailing in 1927 and 1928, as the acreage in 1926 was 17,500 acres and 12,200 in 1925, according to E. A. Logan of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics and Jewell Mayes of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture.

The crop was generally planted around April 15, in good condition, although moisture was short. Recent showers have given some relief.

The watermelon varieties used this year in Missouri's carlot fields are Dixie Bell, comprising 58 per cent of the acreage; Tom Watson, 23 per cent; Thurman Grey, 12 per cent, and Stone Mountain, 7 per cent.

Next fall the pullets and cockerels in the poultry flock will all look about alike, though there will be a great difference in their value for laying and breeding. Now is the time to mark the fastest growing chicks and early maturing birds with bands, or by toe punching, so that the best breeders and layers can be selected later on.

REMOVE FEDERAL PRISONERS FROM SCOTT COUNTY JAIL

The Scott County jail at Benton has been removed from the list of jails approved by the U. S. Government and six Federal prisoners, confined in the jail there, were removed to the jail at Jackson Tuesday afternoon under a court order.

This action followed the recent inspection of the Scott County jail by J. H. Strief, a Federal inspector, who severely condemned it as unfit for further use. He recommended that Federal prisoners not be kept there because of the condition of the jail which is old, has no sanitary facilities and ancient in construction.

Deputy U. S. Marshal A. C. King served the court order on Sheriff Tom Scott of Scott County and removed the prisoners to Jackson. The prisoners were: Lon Smith, Sam Moore, Wm. Eddington, Roy Stroud, Elmer Cline and Wm. Barkham.

The Federal government pays 75 cents per day for the upkeep of the prisoners, who for many years have been kept at Benton.

The jail building is more than 30 years old, is in bad repair, has only five cell rooms, is badly ventilated and without sanitary facilities. It has on occasions accommodated as many as forty-five prisoners, but the average is about 15 to 18. It is impossible for sunlight to reach the cells and because of its construction proper ventilation is impossible.

The Federal inspector characterized it as the second worst jail in Missouri, one at Ironton being in worse condition, he said.

A movement has been under way for several weeks to vote a bond issue to erect a new jail building, but no definite action has been taken.—Cape Missourian.

SIKESTON MAN HELD ON CHARGE OF STEALING GUN

Benton, May 28.—George Flatt, 26, who was arrested at Fayetteville, Ill., Tuesday by Sheriff Tom Scott on a warrant charging him with the theft of an automatic rifle from the residence of Sam Robinson at Skeston two weeks ago. Additional charges of burglary may be filed against Flatt, who officers say has served one term in the Missouri prison for the theft of an automobile at Chaffee in 1924.

CHEWING FOR PROFIT

Just as sipping wine is thoroughly French, chewing gum is thoroughly American—and it seems significant that the newest talking picture starring Maurice Chevalier is based on a plot that revolves about a chewing gum factory.

Chevalier was at one time the national "weakness" of French theatre-goers. But he was too big a genius of the acting art to remain encompassed by mere national boundaries and so he is now a universal favorite, thanks to Paramount talking films and Maurice's own mastery of the English language.

In "The Big Pond" the spirited Maurice plays the part of a young Frenchman who is pitch-forked into an American chewing gum factory, to learn the business. By dint of inspiring perseverance, accompanied by a native facility for making songs out of the company's advertisements, he rises in the ranks, wins commercial fame—and the girl of his heart. "The Big Pond" comes to the Malone Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Prompt and proper cooling of milk and cream on the farm would improve the grade of dairy products and thus add greatly to the income of dairy farmers. To make sure that milk reaches its destination in the best condition, cool it to 50°F or below immediately after milking, and protect it during shipment, says the Bureau of Dairy Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture. The quickest way to cool milk is to run it over a surface cooler, through which flows the coldest water available, then set the cans of milk in a well-insulated tank filled with water at a temperature of 40°F or below. By this method it is possible to cool milk within an hour after it leaves the cow. Cream should be cooled immediately after it is separated. If the amount is small, cool by placing in a can and setting the can in water not warmer than 40°F, and stringing after half an hour. In hot weather, chunks of ice scattered over the tops of the can will help to maintain the temperature of the milk or cream.

GREASING that misses nothing

BEWARE the dangers to your car and pocketbook that inexpert lubrication means. For the neglect of a single spot in oiling and greasing means added wear and strain for the spot—expensive repairs later. Here is efficiency at your command. Quick service that is thorough. Oiling by experts using modern equipment and modern lubricants. It means added miles and added safety for you. Use it.

The county of Stoddard and 13 of its citizens have been sued for the sum of $300,000 for alleged damages growing out of the failure to stamp a deed which was admitted to record there some fifteen years ago, when government stamps were required on such instruments, although the stamps were at the time paid for and later affixed to the deed. The reason the stamps were not affixed at the time was because the recorder was out of them.

We'll confess the 6-column ad on the first page looks like hell, but we need the money!

The Editor of the Tidings got sick
the other day, and the doctor made him mad by telling him it was on account of poor circulation.—Commercial Appeal.

This is the 29th day of May and
hardly a morning up to the present,
but what a little fire was needed in
the homes, especially if small children were in the household. During
the middle of the day the sun has
been very warm which puts malaria
in the system.

Mrs. L. Kiersky left Sunday for an extended visit in the South with relatives and friends. From Sikeston,
Mr. Kiersky drove she and the children to Paragould, Ark., from there
she will go to Birmingham, Ala., then
to the Gulf Coast for a four-weeks
visit.

The end of Dr. Max Meyer is what usually comes to the man who thinks
out loud about his superiors. In this case he may have been more learned along certain lines than the Board of Curators, but they had the last word
and it will stick to Max as long as he lives.

This being Decoration Day, it is hoped business houses will close their stores at noon so all can attend the
services at the cemetery. This is an occasion where business should not be entered into, but the afternoon
should be spent in meditation and
with solemnity fitting the occasion.

Sim Flinders finds that nobody hardly ever gets exactly what they want, and when they do get it, they find out it wasn't what they wanted.
This has no personal reference to the location of Highway 61 north of Sikeston.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Following the custom, the Legion
and the Auxiliary will have charge of Memorial Day observance in Sikeston.
There will be no parade this year, but
those who are interested in paying
this annual tribute to our honored
dead, are requested to assemble
promptly at 2 o'clock at the cemetery
as the service will start at that hour.
A Grant Fry, D. S. C., of Cape Girardeau, will be the speaker. It will be remembered by many that he was
the speaker who was here when Legion Square was dedicated on Armistice Day two years ago. Fry is a forceful talker and those who attend are assured of hearing something worth while.
Business houses will close between
the hours of one and three, it is hoped, in order to allow their employees
to join others who attend the memorial service.

At 8:00 o'clock the Legionnaires
will assemble at Dudley's and then
go to the cemetery to place the flags
on the graves of the Veterans. Soon
after this the Auxiliary will place
flowers on the graves so marked.
It has always been difficult to secure sufficient flowers for this purpose and it is requested that any persons having flowers available for the
decoration of the graves of the Veterans, please notify Mrs. W. A. Anthony or Mrs. Gus Martin.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO PRESENT HOME TALENT
CARNIVAL JUNE 12, 13, 14 BENEFIT LIBRARY

A home talent carnival with all the flavor of a real honest-to-goodness
commercialized show is to be presented by the Sikeston Woman's Club in Malone Park, beginning Thursday night, June 12, and continuing thru Saturday night, June 14. Proceeds will be used by the Sikeston Library,
an institution sponsored by the Woman's Club.

The idea for the carnival here originated with Mrs. C. H. Denman, chairman of library work and now
publicity chairman of the carnival-
to-be.

Mrs. Moore Greer, assisted by Mrs.
C. D. Matthews, Jr., will have charge

of the fun frolic in Malone Park,
having under their direction the following committee chairmen: Lights,
Mrs. M. M. Beck; costumes, Mrs. Gid Daniels; signs, Mrs. W. B. Cole; permission, Mrs. L. O. Rodes, equipment,
Mrs. C. C. Rose, refreshments, Mrs.
C. A. Cook and talent, Mrs. B. F.
Blanton.

Exact plans for the three-day fun
festival have not been completely worked out, but it is safe to say that the directors will present a complete outlay of carnival attractions
including music, refreshments, cold drinks and various amusement stands.

SIX FIRES IN 48 HOURS SETS RECORD IN
THIS CITY, NALL HOME DESTROYED THURSDAY

After coasting through May with
a clear record, the fire bugs swarmed
into the city and established a new
high record for short runs with six
calls recorded and answered by the
fire department within 48 hours.

The most serious of the six occurred
about 1:00 o'clock Thursday
morning when the Lon Nall home on
Ruth Street was found in flames. Mr.
and Mrs. Nall explained that they returned home at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night, heated water on an
electric stove for a bath, and then
retired. Mrs. Nall was awakened
about 1:00 o'clock by smoke which
poured down a stairway.

Mr. and Mrs. Nall escaped safely
and succeeded with the aid of neighbors in salvaging furniture from two lower floor rooms. The damage however will amount to more than $2500.

The fire seemed to have started in
the attic and had gained too much
headway to be extinguished when the
fire department reached the scene.

The schedule of fires:
Jim Petty shop, 9:30 a. m. Monday.
Damage $300.

Chris Porter home, 10:30 a. m.,
Monday. Damage $25.

day. Bed afire.

Tuesday. No damage.

day. No damage.

day morning.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT HERE
GOES IN FOR DAYLIGHT SAVING

Members of the local Division 10
now carry two watches, one to tick
off the minutes in keeping with other
folks about town, and a second
timepiece which conforms to the new
7 to 12, 1 to 4 ruling of the department. The office has gone in for daylight saving beginning Monday
morning.

While the avowed purpose of the
new ruling is to avoid long, hot summer afternoons by adding an hour to
the morning schedule, it is pointed out that many of the members of the
department take their golf seriously,
and one hour more of daylight is one
more hour.

—AND THE GREEN STORE
LOSES ANOTHER AWNING

About two weeks ago, a fire call
found a brand new Green Store awning in flames. A gallon or so of
chemicals sufficed in extinguishing
the blaze, but the "outside curtain"
was a total wreck.

Wednesday about 10:15 another
new, recently replaced awning was found ablaze again. A chemical tank from the store was used in ex-
tinguishing the fire, but awning No.
2 is another total loss. It is believed
that persons in offices above the store
probably flipped cigarettes on the
awnings to start the fires.

Special Opportunity Teacher

Miss Florence Crisler of New Madrid has been approved by State Supt.
Le for the special opportunity room

arship. Miss Crisler is a graduate of Christian College and has had additional work at Cape Girardeau, Murray, Ky., and the University of Missouri. She has had several years' experience as a primary teacher and comes highly recommended.

be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. S.
W. Applegate, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bilsky, formerly Miss Kathleen Caldwell of Flint,

weeks' visit with her parents,

ton.

visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.
J. Matthews, at Portageville, returned to Sikeston Thursday, where she will visit for a few days before returning to her home in St. Louis.

OPENS NEW BARBECUE
STAND IN BENTON

Porter's Cafe in Benton has gone
modern in every respect. W. C.
Porter, co-owner of the modern lunch
room, stated Wednesday that a modern barbecue pit had been constructed in the building, and that a full line of toasted sandwiches, and the regular menu of cold drinks, ice cream and light lunches would be available regularly.

Beginning June 1, the business will remain open until midnight.

The Arbutus Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Tom Baty Monday
evening, June 2, with Mrs. Baty, Mrs.
Hubert Boyer and Mrs. Randolph as hostesses. All members are requested to be present.

Ellen Hogan, 19 year old Parma
girl, who suffered a broken neck in
an automobile accident near her home
town about six weeks ago, died at her
home in Parma late Sunday night.
Funeral services were held at Parma.
Miss Hogan, two other girls and
three boys, were all hurt when a Ford
coupe in which they were riding turned over in a ditch. The other two girls, who suffered fractured skulls,
recovered. Miss Hogan was treated
for some time at a hospital, and
when released it was doubtful if
she could survive.

addition, will be in charge of a Normal school graduate next year, who will teach some high school work, er in the Macedonia district, and Miss Green is the affable and charming daughter of Mrs. Zella E. Green.

a few days.

DOG GRAFT LEADERS
TAKE PRISON TERMS

Batesville, Ark., May 26.—The
breakup of a hound dog fraud ring,
which came about when a Missouri
farmer discovered he paid a mail order price of $50 for a dog he previously had sold for $2, today resulted
in an 18-months' sentence for E. R.
Moody, of Hindman, Ky., reputed
leader of the ring, on a charge of
using the mails to defraud.

Moody and six others involved in
the operations of the ring, alleged to
have fraudulently disposed of worth-
less dogs to huntsmen and dog fan-
ciers at high prices, pleaded guilty
when arraigned before Judge John E.
Martineau in federal court today.

Mack Lyons of Phoenix, Ariz.,
also was sentenced to 18 months in

the federal penitentiary. Paul Davis
and Bob Finley, both of Charleston,
Mo., were fined $500. Mrs. Lillian
Scott, also of Charleston, was fined
$250. J. R. Pierce and Gene Russell,
both of Bee Branch, near Heber
Springs, Ark., were placed on probation after the court said it was convinced they were engaged only in the
buying activities of the ring.

The ring operated several months
before it was apprehended. It was alleged that fake hound dog sales had
netted them some $30,000 before detection.

"That Interesting Store"

Furniture—Radio—Undertaking

Our 32nd Year in Charleston

Better and Better

Ladies who have been in to look our stock of living
room suites lately with a view of purchasing may be interested in learning that eight new ones are being unpacked as this ad is being written. They are exceedingly good values—in fact the best the market affords
at $100.00 to $175.00 for three pieces. A number of these are bed suites made by the famous Kroehler factory. Pay us an early visit whether you wish to buy or not. Plenty of time to pay if you do purchase.

Prettiest in Southeast Missouri

"And that's no joke". This store has had extensive stocks of bedroom suites before—many times—but
this time our buyer, according to one of our force,
must have "gone wild". Briefly—the stock is unusual, in fact would be unusual in a town of 25,000 people,
but it is right here in Charleston now and will be sold
to ladies of Southeast Missouri who take a delight in beautifully furnished bedrooms. As an excuse for loading up on these wonderful suites the buyer said "I couldn't resist them at the price quoted". That means
"bargains" to our trade. The show is free. See part of it in the windows.

Just Visiting Around

Our Manager is spending a few weeks visiting among
farmers of Mississippi and Scott Counties, renewing
old business connections and seeking to build additional good will between the store and people who have helped make our place possible. In addition to social calls he is gathering data and information which
should enable us to make fall purchases more intelligently and otherwise improve our store service. We will appreciate any favors extended to him.

Of Interest to Wheat Threshers

There are several excellent ranges in our used department that would make good in a cook shack for threshing crews. Every new part needed has been put in properly and they are ready for hard service. Prices
are less than half the cost of new ones. First customers usually get best values.

Something New Every Week

There's plenty to show you in new goods this week.
Among outstanding items of good value are fifteen or
twenty beautiful occasional chairs and rockers running in price from $6.50 to $20.00 each. A home is hardly complete these days without an occasional or
"pull up" chairs. These are sure to please you and
are easy on your purse.

How Would You Like to Trade

Our Used Department man says we need some dining
tables and chairs that he can sell at a low price to people who can't pay high prices—hence we offer some
good allowances on trades for dining room goods.
Among other unusual values of that type on display is
an eight-piece dining set of walnut with pretty lines
and good cabinet work for $125.00—the best we have had at that figure for years. Phone No. 50 if interested.
Mississippi County sets off almost by itself from the
group of Southeast Missouri Counties. That situation
was a business handicap to us in the days of horse deliveries and mud trails but motor trucks and cement
roads have solved the problem. Almost daily deliveries to either Blodgett, Cairo, Poplar Bluff, Sikeston, Morley, East Prairie or Dexter or reminders that
wherever you live in Southeast Missouri you are only a few minutes from our store. Goods are delivered in
New Madrid one hour and a half after purchase, Cairo,
one hour, Blodgett, one hour, Sikeston, one hour and so on.

Trade Extension Program
Going Good.

That's why we carry a large city stock and render city service in a town of 3500 people. Competition is keen on all sides, but this program of extending trade
territory in our lines is stepping along good, getting
better every day with our force all keyed up and crying for more. Friends say we have the best equipped store of its kind between St. Louis and Memphis—
possibly that's one reason patrons continue to come from a distance. At any rate if you wish to know what it is all about come along and look the plant over from bottom to top. You'll not be urged to buy but in all probability you will find some items hard to resist.

LADIES TO PRESENT PAGEANT AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will present a pageant beginning at 8 o'clock Sunday night at the church. The public is invited to attend.

The remainder of the church program for the day follows:

Sunday school meets at 9:30. The 11:00 o'clock services will be devoted to a Children's Day program with the whole Sunday school in charge. Young Peoples, Intermediate and Adult Endeavor groups meet at 7:00 o'clock.

LEGION BOAT RIDE JUNE 3

The Legion has again secured the "Island Maid" for a boat ride and dance on June 3 and the boat will leave New Madrid at 8:15 p. m. for a jaunt on the big muddy.

Those who attended the last party on the Island Maid know what a clean boat it is and what an excellent dancing floor is available.

There is a shortage of lights on the top deck, due entirely to the necessity of aiding the pilot. However, this deck is not denied the passengers. At the time of the last trip a couple was walking along holding tightly to each other, when a voice from the darkness said, "Let 'er go, Steve. Let's see if she will run".

Get tickets from The Bijou or Dud's and save a quarter.

CHRIS PORTER HOME AGAIN VISITED BY FIRE TRUCK

After a lapse of nearly a month in fire calls, the Sikeston department answered a series of minor blazes this week. A bundle of papers on the kitchen cabinet in the Chris Porter home was found blazing Monday morning about 10:30 o'clock—the second fire of the morning. The first call came to the cleaning and pressing shop located in an alley on Malone Avenue.

The fire boys made a second run to the Chris Porter home in the early morning hours Tuesday. A bed in the guest room was found ablaze, possibly from defective wiring in a bed lamp. The damage was slight.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Services will be conducted Sunday morning at the local Lutheran chapel, according to Rev. E. H. Koerber, resident pastor of Chaffee.

The services will begin at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon text will be taken from Mark 16: 14-20 "The Farewell Sermon of Jesus to His Disciples".

Mrs. Jas. Porter and little daughter, Barbara Jean, are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Watkins.

Miss Jewell Mouser will leave Sunday night for Kirksville, Mo., where she will attend summer school. She will be located at 41 South Marion.

PARAGOULD TO ENTERTAIN LOCALS ON FAIRGROUNDS PARK DIAMOND SUNDAY

After taking a severe drubbing at the hands of the Osceola Indians, who had suffered two humiliating defeats at the hands of Sikeston, the locals have contracted for an afternoon's entertainment at the hands of Paragould, Ark., next Sunday. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock, Fairgrounds Park.

The visitors lay claim to an imposing record of eight straight victories pitching their veteran moundsman, Faulkner, while the locals can point only to a successful season last year and two wins and one defeat this season. Manage Malone is meeting the demands of local fans for this by starting "Big" Burrus, hefty right hander who last season won 90 percent of the games in which he started.

Burry was unable to finish the season last fall due to an injured thumb. He started his spring training by working for Chaffee three weeks ago, and walked from the mound with a 15-run margin of victory tucked under his belt. Malone feels that his big right hander is on a par with most of the imported products and intends to give the "Smiling Giant" a rather stiff assignment for his first Sikeston game of the spring season. Bowman will catch as usual.

Malone has received numerous letters from managers hopeful of securing a game with the locals. One of the most ambitious of the lot is credited to Mac Hagebush, manager of the Anna, Ill., ball club.

Says MacHagebush in his epistle to Tom: "Kindly let me know what your guarantee would be to play a game in Anna on some Sunday in July after the 13th."

"Kelly, the Cambria manager, played here Saturday and advised us that you had a real ball club. Since we are expecting to have a big season and have such clubs as Paducah, Ky., Mt. Carmel, Harrisburg and others booked, we would like to have a game here with you and possibly a return date down there later in the season if it could be arranged."

Then follows the fireworks: "Your team would have to be of the best class and we would appreciate hearing from you at once."

Of course, Mr. Mac Hagebush may have something in his little Illinois village to set the brush afire, but his letter seemed to fire something in Manager Malone. The offer of a game F. O. B. Sikeston was written Thursday morning, but Mr. MacHagebush has not had time to answer as yet. If the Anna boys are as good as their manager admits they are, there should be one good ball game in that city on or after July 13.

Malone has booked games for the following dates:

June 8, the locals journey to Doniphan.

June 15, an undefeated Memphis Frisco team, accompanied by Jeff Frazier, division superintendent and a gang of rooters from the Tennessee "port" will be entertained here.

June 22, Osceola, Ark., here.

June 29, Doniphan here.

July 6, Cambria, Ill., in Sikeston.

We have an idea that some people are more grateful than others, if you know what we mean.

The Standard office will be closed Friday afternoon in order that all may attend memorial services here and elsewhere.

To have the sort of crops that all are hoping for, it is necessary to have a good rain about every Saturday night. Just now, one would be very acceptable on town gardens, flower beds and lawns, and farmers would not object.

Some dreary punishment, worse than solitary confinement, should be meted out to the members of the House who had to be arrested in order to make a quorum. They might be forced to read the Congressional Record covering the period of their absence.

Friday of next week, June 6, will be Democratic Day at Dexter. Some mighty good speakers will be in attendance and we feel sure there will be no sectarian or wet and dry speeches delivered. Old time Democracy will be the subject and it should appeal to the people at this time of Republican prosperity.

It is a pretty hard matter to please the public, the merchant or the undertaker. One of the latter variety was complaining to us a few days ago about the health of the community and wondered what was to become of them if this kept up. Poor fellow! We advised him to put on a sale of used and unused shrouds, coffins, etc., and try to boost business.

Diversity of interests, and the advantages arising out of proximity to the seat of government, are urged in support of a plan for dividing Texas into five States. When one recalls that the Lone Star State approximates the Republic of Germany in area, the arguments brought forward by the divisionists are not without weight; yet it is not entirely clear why diversity of interest cannot promote State as well as national welfare, and with air transportation coming rapidly to the front, and radio communication binding remote communities together, mere size will hardly justify division. Sentiment has to be considered, and it will be difficult to invoke the shades of Sam Houston and Davy Crockett in breaking up a solidarity created in the stern days of the Alamo.

California has before its courts, an action in which it is sought to bring a newspaper editor to account for a cartoon directed against a public official. Cartoons sometimes are harsh, and occasionally unjust, but the same objection may be urged against any means for the dissemination of personal opinions. The cartoon has been a faithful soldier in many a hard-fought campaign, not the mildest of which was the movement to down Boss Tweed in New York City, years ago. No lash reached Tweed's back so effectively as that of Thomas Nast, the cartoonist, and the politicians is reported to have said, in substance, that while it was difficult to get printed matter into the intelligent comprehension of the masses, anybody could understand Nast's pictures.

RANKING OF MISSOURI CITIES WILL CHANGE AS RESULT OF FINAL COUNT IN 1930 CENSUS

St. Louis.—Many Missouri cities will change in rank as result of the 1930 census.

St. Louis, of course, will remain the largest city in the State, followed by Kansas City, St. Joseph and Springfield.

Joplin will be edged out of position as fifth largest if University City, St. Louis suburb, shows the growth expected by real estate men and registers between 35,000 and 40,000. Webster Groves and Maplewood are other St. Louis suburbs expected to go well above 10,000.

Hannibal, seventh in the 1920 census, and Jefferson City, eighth, apparently have passed Sedalia which was sixth in place.

Cape Girardeau has shown the largest percentage growth of any city above 10,000 so far reported, with a gain of 57.5 per cent, followed closely by Jefferson City with 48.4 per cent, Springfield with 45.6 per cent and Columbia with 43.6 per cent.

The largest percentage increase of cities now between 5000 and 10,000 has been shown by Clayton, county seat of St. Louis County, with a gain of 216.7 per cent. Washington is second with 88.6 per cent, Sikeston third with 56.9 per cent and Marshall fourth with 55.4 per cent.

PLANNING TO BUILD ELEVATED ROAD ACROSS SAHARA DESERT

Paris, May 26.—Construction of a 1500-mile elevated electric railroad across the Sahara desert is under discussion in Paris. It is proposed to build a structure 12 feet above the shifting sands on concrete piles protected from nomad tribes by high tension electric wires. The estimated cost of the railroad is $117,000,000, or about one-twentieth of the French annual budget.

It is pointed-out that the proposal would open a new empire in France's African possessions. The Sudan is rich in timber and minerals. These, it is estimated, would in a few years pay for the construction of the railroad.

SEDALIA MAN FINDS HEALTH IN NEW KONJOLA

Stomach And Kidney Ills Of Long Standing No Problem For New Medicine.

"I eat, sleep and feel like a different man since taking this great medicine, Konjola," said Mr. L. H. Gibson, 206 South Ohio street, Sedalia. "I suffered for years with stomach and kidney trouble. Nothing I ate agreed with me and I bloated terribly after every meal. This gas pressure made me short of breath and nauseated. My kidneys were weak and bladder actions were frequent. Splitting headaches often lasted for days. "My kidneys were first to respond to the action of Konjola. My bladder now functions properly and I suffer no back pains and headaches. I have not enjoyed my meals in years as I do today. I never bloat after meals and my meals and my appetite is excellent. My entire system has been aided by this great medicine and I am in excellent health for the first time in many years. I enthusiastically recommend Konjola to all men and women who suffer as I did."

It is logical to believe that what Konjola has done for others it will do for you—for everyone. This is especially so if Konjola is given a fair trial and six to eight weeks is recommended as a fair test. Konjola is sold in Sikeston at the Derris Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

There is only one universal language that all men the world over can use and understand—the language of feature and gesture.

Three-cornered wire sink baskets make good receptacles for dusty and oily cloths in the cleaning closets, as they permit a circulation of air and reduce the danger of fire. They take up very little space in a small closet.

MISS POOLE TO OPERATE COURTESY

The Courtesy Oil Station, located at Poplar and Moran Streets, a part of the New Justrite Building having been leased for same, will be operated under the supervision of Miss Myrtle H. Poole, who has been in the employ of the Justrite Oil Company and Justrite Tire Company for the past four years.

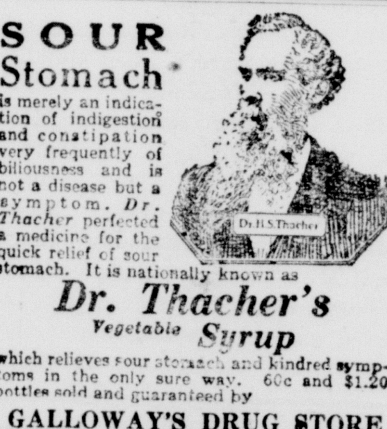

After careful consideration of the various petroleum products, it was decided that the Courtesy Oil Station should distribute Sinclair Products.

According to our knowledge, this is the first service in Poplar Bluff, to be operated under the management of a lady; however, Miss Poole states that with the co-operation of the employees of the Courtesy Oil Station, with the courteous treatment which the customers will receive at the new station, and with the quality merchandise to be sold, she is very confident that the Courtesy Oil Station will be able to build up one of the best service station businesses in the city.—Justrite News, Poplar Bluff.

Butter from pasteurized sweet cream keeps better than butter made from raw, sour cream. Cream may be pasteurized easily by putting the cream in shotgun cans or pails, placing them in a wash boiler or other container, and heating. Stir the cream occasionally while heating and keep it at a temperature of from 145° to 150°F for 25 or 30 minutes. Cool it as quickly as possible to 50°F or lower and keep it at that temperature for at least three hours before churning. This helps to make the butter granules firmer. Churn in the same way as with raw, sour cream.

Odie Bess, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bess of Cane Creek, was painfully injured Saturday afternoon, near his home, when he was dragged by a team of mules. Young Bess was piloting a load of logs down a steep hill and his foot slipped off the brake. He fell down between the mules and loaded wagon, and was dragged some distance. By a miracle, the wheels did not pass over him. His body, head and limbs, however, were a mass of cuts and bruises from rocks and stumps. The boy was brought to Poplar Bluff for treatment. He was reported getting along nicely.

Some thirty guests attended the ceremony. The bride, with her parents, John F. Gray and the late Mrs. Tululah Gray, formerly resided in this city. They have many friends in this city, Southeast Missouri and Western Kentucky.

Miss Gertrude Miller, who has been chief operator for the Southeast Missouri Telephone Company in this city, but who now has been transferred to St. Louis, was the honoree of a delightful surprise party Friday evening in her home, when all the employees of the local branch went in to spend the evening with her. They carried with them delicious refreshments which were served later in the evening. Also a shower of beautiful handkerchiefs, which were given Miss Miller as a farewell gift.

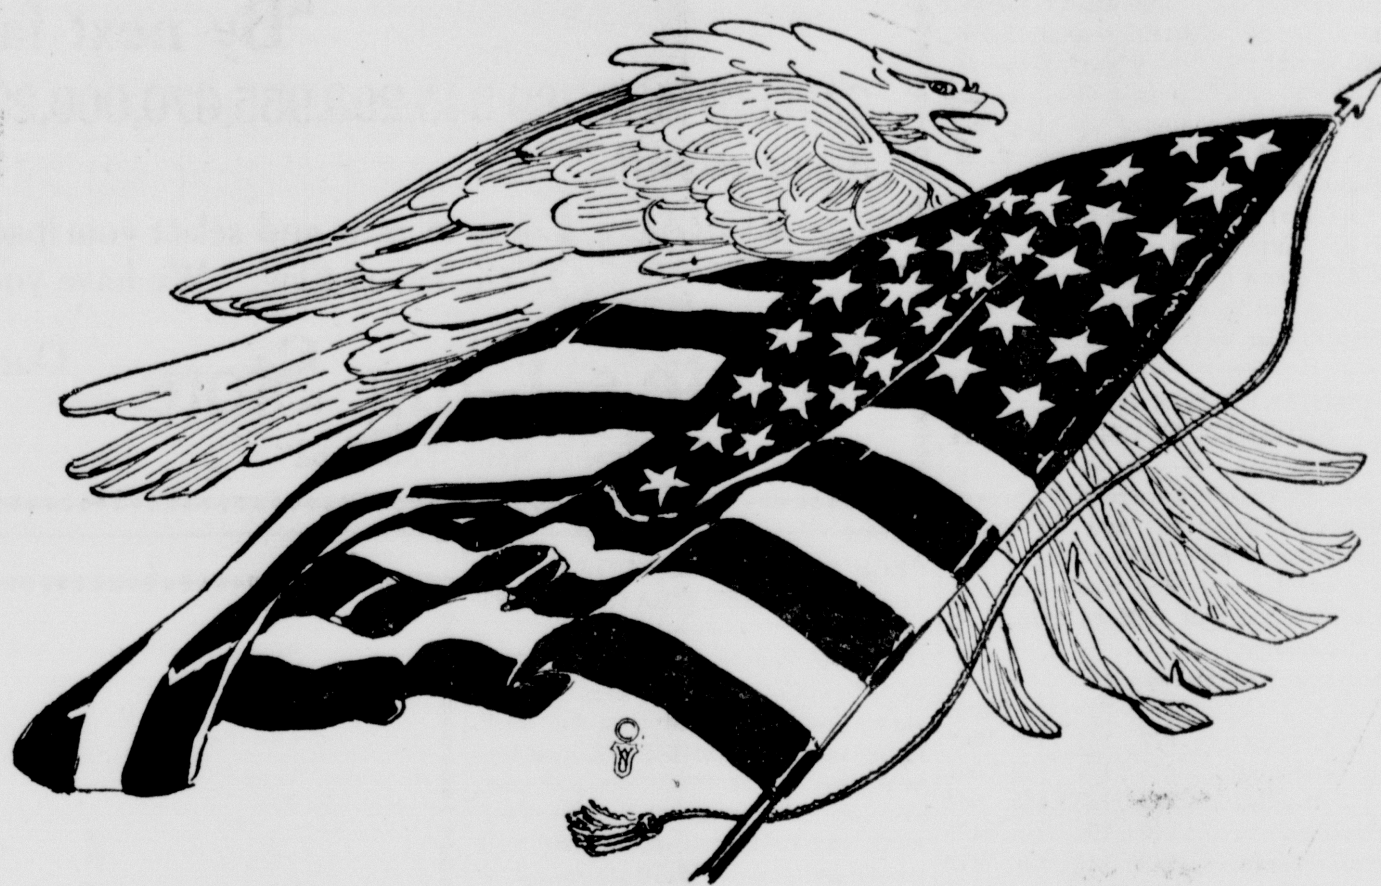

One of the interesting and pleasing musical events of this week was the piano recital given Tuesday at the First Christian church, by twenty young ladies of Mrs. Jacob Grigsby's music class. Those taking part were in costume representing Foreign, Colonial, American and Flower Girls. Their costumes were colorful and attractive. Their musical numbers were rendered with much expression and reflected credit upon their efficient teacher. They were well received by the large audience present.

A very interesting family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jewell in Clinton, Ky., when Mrs. Jewell entertained with a dinner in honor of her mother, Mrs. H. A. Smith of Poplar Bluff. The following children of the honoree were present, the first time they had all been together in over a quarter of a century: Miss Minnie Smith of Poplar Bluff, E. H. Smith of Charleston, Mrs. J. L. Peacock of Tiptonville, Tenn., Mrs. Charles E. Nolen of Jackson, Tenn., Mrs. R. A. Jewell of Clinton, Ky., and Roy Smith of Muskogee, Okla. Twenty-two grandchildren and one great grandchild were present.

Mrs. Harris Smith of this city, who will move to Cape Girardeau the latter part of the week to reside, was the honoree of a very pleasant affair given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest Jones. The Young Matrons' Class of the First Baptist church, met in regular monthly session for their business and social meeting. The hostesses were Mesdames Jones, Dewey Hill and C. C. Courtway. During the social hour, the guests and honoree were invited to the dining room, where on the appointed table, was a decorated moving van, laden with a heavy load of beautiful handkerchiefs for Mrs. Smith, enroute on a gravel road across the table, from Charleston to Cape Girardeau. Refreshments consisting of a ice course were served. Seventeen members were present.

Good Drivers—and Others

THE difference between good and bad driving depends almost entirely on the amount of thought and concentration the driver puts into it.

Almost invariably bad driving is the result of thoughtlessness and inattention. As a rule the new driver is more careful than the experienced one. His inexperience fills him with the full significance of his responsibility and the danger of driving.

On the other hand, the experienced driver becomes careless or, to put it more gently, over-confident of his ability. He or she may display this overconfidence by engaging in conversation or by looking at the scenery while driving. Driving a car requires the full attention of the driver, particularly in these days of heavy traffic.

I don't know why it is, but it seems that I am always running into the bird who stays in the middle of the road when he should be over to the right. He is the cause of many accidents and should be warned by any well-meaning driver, and certainly by law enforcement officials, that he is a nuisance and a menace.

Then there is that other moron who speeds up to rush across a road just as the light is changing. It would be a real pleasure for me to tell him just exactly what I think of him.

These two examples of bad driving are direct results of thoughtlessness and recklessness and I am making it my duty to stop and talk to this sort of motorist just as a matter of motoring education. In the last year, I have talked to about twenty transgressors of this type and only once has the recipient of my remarks become angry and told me to mind my own business. As it happened, I followed this driver and it was only five miles from where I first encountered him that I found him in the arms (literally) of the law. I took the trouble to add my complaint to those already lodged and I really believe he will be a better driver when he gets his license back.

It is true there is a multiplicity of driving regulations and it is equally true that it is almost impossible for the average individual to keep track of all of them. But rules of common courtesy should not have to be remembered. They should be habitual. Yet if they were observed on American highways, driving conditions would show vast improvement overnight. And such an improvement would not only net greater peace of mind for all motorists but it would save hundreds of thousands of dollars annually as a result of fewer accidents.

NEW DAY IS DAWNING FOR YUCATAN INDIANS

Renaissance sweeps through Yucatan, promising that the Maya Indians as well as their famous cities have survived four centuries of eclipse.

After 400 years of patient bondage the Indians who developed the foremost early civilization of North America, who built skyscraper temples, paved roads through the jungle and developed a written language and an exact calendar, are asserting themselves.

Two-thirds of the population of the peninsula, about 250,000, is Maya: large sector of the people are mestizo, Indians with some white blood.

Outside of Merida, the capital, the language of their Maya ancestors developed at the time Roman civilization was being destroyed by the barbarians. The schools teach Maya in addition to Spanish and English.

The governor of Yucatan is a Maya. When he was inaugurated recently a 20-minute speech in Maya received a vociferous welcome from the crowd.

Native actors recently prepared a Maya musical play, "Payambe", for presentation in the historic courtyard of the pyramid temple at Chichen Itza. Maya architectural forms are being revived for modern Yucatan buildings and memorials.

"The Mayas found an inspiring leader in Felipe Carrillo Puerto," says a bulletin of the National Geographic Society.

"The martyred governor, they call him, because he was assassinated in 1923, just 22 months after he entered office and while his reformation was in full tide. But his work goes on.

"The schools go on. The leagues of resistance go on. The village baseball teams go on. The henequen cooperative goes on. The liberalized divorce laws go on. The new land laws go on. The building of good roads goes on. All these things Carrillo worked for.

"Yucatan, before the revolution of 1911, was a forsaken land ruled by a handful of landowners whose vast estates came down to them from grants given by Cortez's lieutenant, Montejó. Landless Indians and mestizos worked the plantations, cultivating the 'green gold' henequen that Yucatan ships north as binder twine to bind the shocks of North America's bumper crops. Travelers described the natives as a patient, ignorant uninspired people, unaware that patience was the Maya method of resistance to the white overlord.

"All Yucatan's hopes rose and fell with the price of henequen, its one major crop. So closely did the land owners concentrate on henequen that it became necessary to import staples like fruit, corn, chickens and eggs. Because he had to buy food supplies, the native was forever in debt, and therefore in bondage, to the big land owner.

"Twenty years ago 96 per cent of the heads of families in Yucatan, an agricultural State, owned no land whatsoever. As a result of the revolution, 80,000 families have been given from 30 to 40 acres of land. The big estates have not been wiped out. No large land holder was reduced to less than 1233 acres of land.

"In distributing the land, the leaders went back to the old Maya custom of communal ownership. Lands of each community are allotted to householders by a local agrarian commission. The householder may not sell the land given to him. He can cultivate it; the products of the soil are his, but the soil belongs to the community.

"Land rights gave new importance to villages and towns where local chapters of the League of Resistance sprang up over night. The life of each community is concentrated in its league, which meets once a week. These sessions often combine the duties and pleasures of an American grange, a school board and a church supper. Conferences on farming education and the organization of a baseball team or an orchestra are sandwiched with singing, recitations of poetry and speeches.

"Modern Mayas have not revived the ball game of their ancestors which seems to have been a type of basketball. At Chichen Itza a large court arranged for this game has been found. Instead they have turned to American baseball, although tennis, boxing and similar sports are spreading. Baseball receives credit for driving out the Spanish sport of bull fighting.

"An American archeologist, specializing on Maya ruins reports that he heard an Indian boy shout, 'Conex conex, jugar baseball, ten catcher tech pitcher'. (Come along, come along to play baseball. I catcher, you pitched), Maya, Spanish and American all in one sentence.—Commercial Appeal.

Spraying with bordeaux mixture is the best way to control the potato leaf hopper, which not only feeds on the leaves but causes hopperburn, a disease which sometimes ruins an entire potato crop in one or two weeks. When leaf hoppers are abundant make at least three applications of bordeaux, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and spray a fourth time if necessary to keep down hopperburn until the crop has matured. Spray both sides of the rows, using at least 150 pounds pressure, and see that the mixture reaches the undersides of the leaves. The 4-4-50 formula is generally used. The leaf hopper, which is one of the worst enemies of potatoes, is a very small, pale-green insect. The adult is about one-eighth of an inch long, with white markings, and has an H on its body.

"All Yucatan's hopes rose and fell with the price of henequen, its one major crop. So closely did the land owners concentrate on henequen that

NEW MADRID COUNTY GIRLS START 4-H CLUBS

A number of Parma girls met last Friday afternoon at the gymnasium and organized two 4-H Clubs.

County Agent Scott M. Julian, explained the different projects and also told how to organize a 4-H Club.

The girls then decided to organize a Supper Club with Mrs. Floyd Gale as local leader, and a Garment Making Club with Miss Hustead as local leader. Some of the members plan to attend the club camp at Irontdale June 2nd to 5th. The next meeting will be held Friday of this week at the gymnasium and all mothers are cordially invited to be present.

The officers elected for the Supper Club are: Gladys Brown, President; Ilene Heddy, Vice-President; Charlotte Gee, Secretary-Treasurer; Wynon Heddy, Cheer Leader; Kathleen Gee, Reporter; Mrs. Floyd Gale, leader.

The officers for the Garment Making Club are: Georgia Knight, President; Vera Meek, Vice-President; Virginia French, Secretary-Treasurer; Maude Brown, Reporter; Miss Hustead, leader.

The two Morehouse Supper Clubs held their Achievement Days last Tuesday and Wednesday. Each Club had a very attractive program with snappy demonstrations by the girls.

The group of older girls each demonstrated how to prepare some dish, explaining while so doing. The other group did not have a preparation of food demonstration, but demonstrated the proper method of setting the table, interspersed with recitations.

Pins were presented those girls completing by County Agent Scott M. Julian. Miss Frances Rauch, the leader for both Clubs, is to be congratulated upon having done a very fine piece of work, and the girls themselves deserve congratulations for the manner in which they carried on the work.

Fifteen of the New Madrid girls have organized themselves into a 4-H Garment Making Club, with Mrs. Scott M. Julian as local leader.

Some of the girls will attend the summer camp at Irontdale, beginning the second of June, and work on the sewing project will begin after the camp is finished.

The Standard $1.50 per year.

Jellied Salads Are Popular

By CAROLINE B. KING

JELLIED salads are always popular. On warm days I like them because they are so cool; on cool days because they are so colorful—and in between times because I adore making them. Here's my best. I call it: Macedoine Salad. I use those delightful peas and carrots that are sold in glass jars in making my pretty salad; it is so nice to be able to see the colors and the sizes of the vegetables. Soften one tablespoonful of gelatin in a quarter of a cupful of cold water and add one cupful of the liquor from the peas, bring to the boiling point and stir in half a teaspoonful of salt and three tablespoonfuls of granulated sugar, a quarter of a cupful of lemon juice and two tablespoonfuls of juice from the jar of pineapple. Cool almost to the point of congealing and add a quarter of a cupful of carrots cut in small pieces, one cupful of peas and two tablespoonfuls of pineapple shredded coarsely and half a cupful of shredded pineapple. Stir gently and pour into individual molds. At serving time unmold on plates bordered with cress and garnish with mayonnaise and stars cut from the pineapples. It does look entrancing when it's all dressed up and ready to serve with tiny toasted cheese crackers!

COTTON BELT BUS SERVICE PASSES THRU SKESTON

Operating with new 35-passenger busses with reclining chairs, the Southwestern Transportation Company, a subsidiary of the Cotton Belt railway, Sunday, June 1, will inaugurate fast service between St. Louis and Memphis.

The principal points served enroute are Pickneyville, Murphysboro, Carbondale and Cairo in Illinois; Charleston, Skeston, New Madrid, Mayti and Caruthersville Junction in Missouri; and Blytheville, Luxora, Osceola and Wilson in Arkansas. At Memphis, Tenn., the Cotton Belt makes direct connection with its own lines Southwest to Brinkley, Stuttgart, Pine Bluff, Camden, Magnolia and Texarkana in Arkansas. A connecting line operates from Texarkana to Shreveport. Continuing Southwest from Texarkana, Cotton Belt busses serve Mt. Pleasant, Tyler, Corsicana, Waco, Greenville, Dallas, Ft. Worth and El Paso in Texas, terminating at Las Cruces, New Mexico, where connection is made with the Imperial Stages to Phoenix, San Diego and Los Angeles.

The return service from the Southwest affords connections at Memphis for Birmingham, Atlanta, Chattanooga, Nashville, Louisville and points East. At St. Louis connections are made for Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

SKESTON BUS LINE PERMIT IS REVOKED

Jefferson City, May 27.—Two bus line permits for Southeast Missouri lines were revoked today by the State Public Service Commission because the companies failed to file the legal fees required by the bus law.

One permit canceled was that issued to Sunnyland Stages, Inc., to operate as an interstate line from Birds' Point to Skeston on Highway 60 and from Skeston to the Missouri-Arkansas line on Highway 61. The other was a permit issued to J. E. Oliver to operate busses from Cape Girardeau to Van Buren on Highways 34 and 61.

The two eyes of a bird do not focus, but are capable of two kinds of vision—one molecular and the other binocular. While one eye is intent on searching for seeds and tiny insects, the other can keep a lookout for possible enemies.

JOAN CRAWFORD LEARNS USE OF COWBOY GARB IN "MONTANA MOON"

If Joan Crawford didn't gain anything else during the several weeks she spent on San Jacinto Mountain cattle ranges during filming of her latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all-talking vehicle, "Montana Moon", she at least learned the whys and wherefores of the traditional American cowboy regalia.

Among the things she learned is that the five-gallon sombrero is worn to protect the eyes from sun glare, hail and rain, its wide brim affording protection to both head and shoulders; that the bandana is knotted about the throat to serve as a handkerchief and to protect the mouth and nose from alkali particles in dust storms and roundups; that chaps are worn not only for warmth and to shield the legs from briars and brush, but to prevent denim trousers from being torn and, most important, to serve as an armor against rattlesnake bites.

Miss Crawford was also informed that the cowpunchers wear high-heeled leather boots because they prevent chafing, the odd-shaped heels clinching the feet into the stirrups for hard service; that revolvers are not carried for protection against "bad men" but for the purpose of killing maimed steer or horses and to be used to check maddened beasts in stampedes; and finally, that lassoes were used not to string up cattle thieves but to rope steers that are to be picked out from herds for various reasons and to bind them for branding.

The new production, filmed almost entirely outdoors, 5000 feet above sea level, was directed by Mal St. Clair from the original story by Sylvia Thalberg and Frank Butler. Included in Miss Crawford's supporting cast are: Ricardo Cortez, Dorothy Sebastian, Cliff Edwards, Benny Rubin, Karl Dane and Lloyd Ingraham.

The setting up of a chair of international relationships in each of the 20 universities in the dominion is the scheme of the promotion of peace advocated by her.

Oats should be cut when they are in the hard dough stage. If cut before this time, they shrivel in curing and are light in weight. If allowed to get fully ripe before cutting, some of the crop shatters and is lost in harvesting. When a large acreage is to be harvested, it is advisable to begin cutting soon after the grain passes out of the milk stage. If the grain is ripe or in the hard dough stage, it can be placed at once in round shocks, which should be capped to prevent damage from rain or dew. If the grain is green or if the bundles contain many weeds, they should be allowed to cure for a few hours before shocking, or should be put into long shocks.

EDISON COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR BOYS

Only boys who have been graduated from a four-year high school this year, or in the immediate past should attempt the examination because the winner must be prepared to enter college in September.

Only boys who have done outstanding work in the physical sciences should attempt the examination. Almost every college in the State has offered a free scholarship to the Missouri winner provided he does not win the national contest.

The boy's round trip expenses to the Edison laboratories will be paid by Mr. Edison and each boy representing his State will meet Mr. Edison and receive a combination radio victrola.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION

Regular Teachers' Examinations will be held in the high school building in Benton, on June 6 and 7, beginning promptly at eight o'clock each morning.

DENTIST TARRED AND FEATHERED FLEES FROM TOWN

Hammond, La., May 27.—D. S. L. Newson, 30-year-old dentist with a fashionable clientele, fled from town today after a warning from a crowd of men who had tarred and feathered him into the principal street.

The men charged the dentist with improper conduct with a prominent married woman, whose identity officials refused to reveal.

Among the active women in the United States is Mrs. George Waller, aged 94, of Burlington, Wis. She has been chairman of the public health association of the city for the past 20 years.

Alfalfa should be cut for hay when the plants are well in bloom. Cutting at an earlier stage of growth gives hay of a higher protein content, but cutting nearer full bloom keeps the stand in better condition. As the leaves contain about two-thirds of the feeding value of the alfalfa plant, hay should be put in the stack or mow with as many leaves as possible. This can be done only with a minimum amount of handling after the hay begins to dry. It should be raked before it becomes brittle and most of the curing done in windrow or shock.

BULL MOOSE SEEM TO LIKE TOWN OF DULUTH

Duluth, Minn., May 26.—Four bull moose came to town Sunday, and town is no place for bull moose. One of them got killed in traffic, and the others made tracks from whence they came.

The moose jumped in front of William Patterson's automobile last night and was run down before Patterson could stop the machine. The animal was about two years old and weighed 200 pounds.

If moose keep coming to Duluth, steps may have to be taken.

In the Fourteenth century it was not considered respectable to speak English owing to the superior social prestige of Norman-French.

If you have a garden don't throw away coffee grounds, banana skins and similar material. These things have fertilizing value and may be added to the compost heap. Add cull vegetables and weeds. The basis of the compost heap may be sod or leaves. Animal manure should be added if available. In addition to waste matter, the compost heap will be helped by bone meal, superphosphate, or phosphate rock. Addition of lime or wood ashes will hasten the decomposition.

ESTIMATES MISSOURI MELON ACREAGE AT 9460 ACRES

Jefferson City, May 27.—The Missouri watermelon acreage planted for 1930 is 9460 acres, against 5700 acres last year and 5000 in 1928.

The crop still reflects the unfavorable conditions prevailing in 1927 and 1928, as the acreage in 1928 was 17,500 acres and 12,200 in 1925, according to E. A. Logan of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics and Jewell Mayes of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture.

The crop was generally planted around April 15, in good condition, although moisture was short. Recent showers have given some relief.

The watermelon varieties used this year in Missouri's carlot fields are Dixie Bell, comprising 58 per cent of the acreage; Tom Watson, 23 per cent; Thurman Grey, 12 per cent, and Stone Mountain, 7 per cent.

Next fall the pullets and cockerels in the poultry flock will all look about alike, though there will be a great difference in their value for laying and breeding. Now is the time to mark the fastest growing chicks and early maturing birds with bands, or by toe punching, so that the best breeders and layers can be selected later on.

Hundreds of people were present at the service. The large auditorium being filled to overflowing, the aisles were crowded with people standing and several hundred were on the outside of the building. One hundred and sixty-eight cars followed the cortege to Calvary Cemetery, where the body was laid to rest at the foot of the crucifix.

All the business houses of the city closed during the service as a mark of respect for this one whose sudden death shed such a gloom over the whole community.

REMOVE FEDERAL PRISONERS FROM SCOTT COUNTY JAIL

The Scott County jail at Benton has been removed from the list of jails approved by the U. S. Government and six Federal prisoners, confined in the jail there, were removed to the jail at Jackson Tuesday afternoon under a court order.

This action followed the recent inspection of the Scott County jail by J. H. Strief, a Federal inspector, who severely condemned it as unfit for further use. He recommended that Federal prisoners not be kept there because of the condition of the jail which is old, has no sanitary facilities and ancient in construction.

Deputy U. S. Marshal A. C. King served the court order on Sheriff Tom Scott of Scott County and removed the prisoners to Jackson. The prisoners were: Lon Smith, Sam Moore, Wm. Eddington, Roy Stroud, Elmer Cline and Wm. Barkham.

The Federal government pays 75 cents per day for the upkeep of the prisoners, who for many years have been kept at Benton.

The jail building is more than 30 years old, is in bad repair, has only five cell rooms, is badly ventilated and without sanitary facilities. It has on occasions accommodated as many as forty-five prisoners, but the average is about 15 to 18. It is impossible for sunlight to reach the cells and because of its construction proper ventilation is impossible.

The Federal inspector characterized it as the second worst jail in Missouri, one at Ironton being in worse condition, he said.

A movement has been under way for several weeks to vote a bond issue to erect a new jail building, but no definite action has been taken.—Cape Missourian.

SIKESTON MAN HELD ON CHARGE OF STEALING GUN

Benton, May 23.—George Platt, 26, who was arrested at Fayetteville, Ill., Tuesday by Sheriff Tom Scott on a warrant charging him with the theft of an automatic rifle from the residence of Sam Robinson at Sikeston two weeks ago. Additional charges of burglary may be filed against Platt, who officers say has served one term in the Missouri prison for the theft of an automobile at Chaffee in 1924.

CHEWING FOR PROFIT

Just as sipping wine is thoroughly French, chewing gum is thoroughly American—and it seems significant that the newest talking picture starring Maurice Chevalier is based on a plot that revolves about a chewing gum factory.

Chevalier was at one time the national "weakness" of French theatre-goers. But he was too big a genius of the acting art to remain encompassed by mere national boundaries and so he is now a universal favorite, thanks to Paramount talking films and Maurice's own mastery of the English language.

In "The Big Pond" the spirited Maurice plays the part of a young Frenchman who is pitch-forked into an American chewing gum factory, to learn the business. By dint of inspiring perseverance, accompanied by a native facility for making songs out of the company's advertisements, he rises in the ranks, wins commercial fame—and the girl of his heart.

"The Big Pond" comes to the Malone Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Prompt and proper cooling of milk and cream on the farm would improve the grade of dairy products and thus add greatly to the income of dairy farmers. To make sure that milk reaches its destination in the best condition, cool it to 50°F or below immediately after milking, and protect it during shipment, says the Bureau of Dairy Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture. The quickest way to cool milk is to run it over a surface cooler, through which flows the coldest water available, then set the cans of milk in a well-insulated tank filled with water at a temperature of 40°F or below. By this method it is possible to cool milk within an hour after it leaves the cow. Cream should be cooled immediately after it is separated. If the amount is small, cool by placing in a can and setting the can in water not warmer than 40°F, and stringing after half an hour. In hot weather, chunks of ice scattered over the tops of the can will help to maintain the temperature of the milk or cream.

The Editor of the Tidings got sick

This is the 29th day of May and
hardly a morning up to the present,
but what a little fire was needed in
the homes, especially if small children were in the household. During
the middle of the day the sun has
been very warm which puts malaria
in the system.

Mrs. L. Kiersky left Sunday for an extended visit in the South with relatives and friends. From Skeston,
Mr. Kiersky drove she and the children to Paragould, Ark., from there
she will go to Birmingham, Ala., then
to the Gulf Coast for a four-weeks
visit.

usually comes to the man who thinks

and it will stick to Max as long as he
lives.

This being Decoration Day, it is hoped business shouses will close their
stores at noon so all can attend the
services at the cemetery. This is an occasion where business should not be enticed into, but the afternoon
should be spent in meditation and
with solemnity fitting the occasion.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Following the custom, the Legion
and the Auxiliary will have charge of Memorial Day observance in Skeston.
There will be no parade this year, but
those who are interested in paying
this annual tribute to our honored
dead, are requested to assemble
promptly at 2 o'clock at the cemetery
as the service will start at that hour.

A Grant Fry, D. S. C., of Cape Gir-
ardeau, will be the speaker. It will
be remembered by many that he was
the speaker who was here when Leg-
ion Square was dedicated on Armistice Day two years ago. Fry is a
forceful talker and those who attend are assured of hearing something worth while.

Business houses will close between
the hours of one and three, it is hoped, in order to allow their employees
to join others who attend the memorial service.

At 8:00 o'clock the Legionnaires
will assemble at Dudley's and then
go to the cemetery to place the flags
on the graves of the Veterans. Soon
after this the Auxiliary will place
flowers on the graves so marked.

It has always been difficult to se-
cure sufficient flowers for this purpose and it is requested that any persons having flowers available for the
decoration of the graves of the Veterans, please notify Mrs. W. A. Anthony or Mrs. Gus Martin.

The idea for the carnival here orig-

C. D. Matthews, Jr., will have charge

SIX FIRES IN 48 HOURS SETS RECORD IN
THIS CITY, NALL HOME DESTROYED THURSDAY

After coasting through May with
a clear record, the fire bugs swarmed
into the city and established a new
high record for short runs with six
calls recorded and answered by the
fire department within 48 hours.

The most serious of the six occurred
about 1:00 o'clock Thursday
morning when the Lon Nall home on
Ruth Street was found in flames. Mr.
and Mrs. Nall explained that they returned home at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night, heated water on an
electric stove for a bath, and then
retired. Mrs. Nall was awakened
about 1:00 o'clock by smoke which
poured down a stairway.

Mr. and Mrs. Nall escaped safely
and succeeded with the aid of neighbors in salvaging furniture from two

lower floor rooms. The damage however will amount to more than $2500.

The fire seemed to have started in
the attic and had gained too much
headway to be extinguished when the
fire department reached the scene.

The schedule of fires:

Jim Petty shop, 9:30 a. m. Monday.
Damage $300.
Chris Porter home, 10:30 a. m.,
Monday. Damage $25.
Chris Porter home, 2:30 a. m., Tuesday. Bed afire.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT HERE
GOES IN FOR DAYLIGHT SAVING

Members of the local Division 10
now carry two watches, one to tick
off the minutes in keeping with other
folks about town, and a second
timepiece which conforms to the new
7 to 12, 1 to 4 ruling of the department. The office has gone in for daylight saving beginning Monday
morning.

While the avowed purpose of the
new ruling is to avoid long, hot summer afternoons by adding an hour to
the morning schedule, it is pointed
out that many of the members of the
department take their golf seriously,
and one hour more of daylight is one
more hour.

—AND THE GREEN STORE
LOSES ANOTHER AWNING

About two weeks ago, a fire call
found a brand new Green Store awn-
ing in flames. A gallon or so of
chemicals sufficed in extinguishing
the blaze, but the "outside curtain"
was a total wreck.

Wednesday about 10:15 another
new, recently replaced awning was
found ablaze again. A chemical
tank from the store was used in ex-
tinguishing the fire, but awning No.
2 is another total loss. It is believed
that persons in offices above the store
probably flipped cigarettes on the
awnings to start the fires.

modern in every respect. W. C.
Porter, co-owner of the modern lunch
room, stated Wednesday that a modern barbecue pit had been constructed in the building, and that a full

home of Mrs. Tom Baty Monday
evening, June 2, with Mrs. Baty, Mrs.
Hubert Boyer and Mrs. Randolph as

Ellen Hogan, 19 year old Parma
girl, who suffered a broken neck in
an automobile accident near her home
town about six weeks ago, died at her
home in Parma late Sunday night.
Funeral services were held at Parma.
Miss Hogan, two other girls and
three boys, were all hurt when a Ford
coupe in which they were riding turned over in a ditch. The other two
girls, who suffered fractured skulls,
recovered. Miss Hogan was treated
for some time at a hospital, and
when released it was doubtful if
she could survive.

DOG GRAFT LEADERS
TAKE PRISON TERMS

Batesville, Ark., May 26.—The
breakup of a hound dog fraud ring,
which came about when a Missouri
farmer discovered he paid a mail order price of $50 for a dog he previously had sold for $2, today resulted
in an 18-months' sentence for E. R.
Moody, of Hindman, Ky., reputed
leader of the ring, on a charge of
using the mails to defraud.

Moody and six others involved in
the operations of the ring, alleged to
have fraudulently disposed of worth-
less dogs to hunters and dog fan-
ciers at high prices, pleaded guilty
when arraigned before Judge John E.
Martineau in federal court today.

Mack Lyons of Phoenix, Ariz.,
also was sentenced to 18 months in

the federal penitentiary. Paul Davis
and Bob Finley, both of Charleston,
Mo., were fined $500. Mrs. Lillian
Scott, also of Charleston, was fined
$250. J. R. Pierce and Gene Russell,
both of Bee Branch, near Heber
Springs, Ark., were placed on probation after the court said it was convinced they were engaged only in the
buying activities of the ring.

The ring operated several months
before it was apprehended. It was
alleged that fake hound dog sales had
netted them some $30,000 before detection.

Our 32nd Year in Charleston

Better and Better

Ladies who have been in to look our stock of living
room suites lately with a view of purchasing may be interested in learning that eight new ones are being
unpacked as this ad is being written. They are exceedingly good values—in fact the best the market affords
at $100.00 to $175.00 for three pieces. A number of these are bed suites made by the famous Kroehler factory. Pay us an early visit whether you wish to buy
or not. Plenty of time to pay if you do purchase.

Prettiest in Southeast Missouri

"And that's no joke". This store has had extensive stocks of bedroom suites before—many times—but
this time our buyer, according to one of our force,
must have "gone wild". Briefly—the stock is unusual, in fact would be unusual in a town of 25,000 people,
but it is right here in Charleston now and will be sold
to ladies of Southeast Missouri who take a delight in beautifully furnished bedrooms. As an excuse for
loading up on these wonderful suites the buyer said "I couldn't resist them at the price quoted". That means
"bargains" to our trade. The show is free. See part
of it in the windows.

Just Visiting Around

Our Manager is spending a few weeks visiting among
farmers of Mississippi and Scott Counties, renewing
old business connections and seeking to build addition-
al good will between the store and people who have helped make our place possible. In addition to social
calls he is gathering data and information which
should enable us to make fall purchases more intelligently and otherwise improve our store service. We
will appreciate any favors extended to him.

Of Interest to Wheat Threshers

There are several excellent ranges in our used department that would make good in a cook shack for threshing crews. Every new part needed has been put in properly and they are ready for hard service. Prices
are less than half the cost of new ones. First customers usually get best values.

Something New Every Week

There's plenty to show you in new goods this week.
Among outstanding items of good value are fifteen or
twenty beautiful occasional chairs and rockers running in price from $6.50 to $20.00 each. A home is hardly complete these days without an occasional or
"pull up" chairs. These are sure to please you and
are easy on your purse.

How Would You Like to Trade

Our Used Department man says we need some dining
tables and chairs that he can sell at a low price to people who can't pay high prices—hence we offer some
good allowances on trades for dining room goods.
Among other unusual values of that type on display is
an eight-piece dining set of walnut with pretty lines
and good cabinet work for $125.00—the best we have had at that figure for years. Phone No. 50 if interested.
Mississippi County sets off almost by itself from the
group of Southeast Missouri Counties. That situation
was a business handicap to us in the days of horse deliveries and mud trails but motor trucks and cement
roads have solved the problem. Almost daily deliveries to either Blodgett, Cairo, Poplar Bluff, Skeston, Morley, East Prairie or Dexter or reminders that
wherever you live in Southeast Missouri you are only
a few minutes from our store. Goods are delivered in
New Madrid one hour and a half after purchase, Cairo,
one hour, Blodgett, one hour, Skeston, one hour and
so on.

Trade Extension Program
Going Good.

That's why we carry a large city stock and render
city service in a town of 3500 people. Competition is keen on all sides, but this program of extending trade
territory in our lines is stepping along good, getting
better every day with our force all keyed up and crying for more. Friends say we have the best equipped
store of its kind between St. Louis and Memphis—
possibly that's one reason patrons continue to come
from a distance. At any rate if you wish to know
what it is all about come along and look the plant over
from bottom to top. You'll not be urged to buy but in all probability you will find some items hard to resist.

LADIES TO PRESENT PAGEANT
AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will present a pageant beginning at 8 o'clock Sunday night at the church. The public is invited to attend.

The remainder of the church program for the day follows:

Sunday school meets at 9:30. The 11:00 o'clock services will be devoted to a Children's Day program with the whole Sunday school in charge. Young Peoples, Intermediate and Adult Endeavor groups meet at 7:00 o'clock.

LEGION BOAT RIDE JUNE 3

The Legion has again secured the "Island Maid" for a boat ride and dance on June 3 and the boat will leave New Madrid at 8:15 p. m. for a jaunt on the big muddy.

Those who attended the last party on the Island Maid know what a clean boat it is and what an excellent dancing floor is available.

There is a shortage of lights on the top deck, due entirely to the necessity of aiding the pilot. However, this deck is not denied the passengers. At the time of the last trip a couple was walking along holding tightly to each other, when a voice from the darkness said, "Let 'er go, Steve. Let's see if she will run".

Get tickets from The Bijou or Dud's and save a quarter.

CHRIS PORTER HOME AGAIN
VISITED BY FIRE TRUCK

After a lapse of nearly a month in fire calls, the Sikeston department answered a series of minor blazes this week. A bundle of papers on the kitchen cabinet in the Chris Porter home was found blazing Monday morning about 10:30 o'clock—the second fire of the morning. The first call came to the cleaning and pressing shop located in an alley on Malone Avenue.

The fire boys made a second run to the Chris Porter home in the early morning hours Tuesday. A bed in the guest room was found ablaze, possibly from defective wiring in a bed lamp. The damage was slight.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Services will be conducted Sunday morning at the local Lutheran chapel, according to Rev. E. H. Koerber, resident pastor of Chaffee.

The services will begin at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon text will be taken from Mark 16: 14-20 "The Farewell Sermon of Jesus to His Disciples".

Mrs. Jas. Porter and little daughter, Barbara Jean, are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Watkins.

Miss Jewell Mouser will leave Sunday night for Kirksville, Mo., where she will attend summer school. She will be located at 41 South Marion.

PARAGOULD TO ENTERTAIN LOCALS ON FAIRGROUNDS PARK DIAMOND SUNDAY

After taking a severe drubbing at the hands of the Osceola Indians, who had suffered two humiliating defeats at the hands of Sikeston, the locals have contracted for an afternoon's entertainment at the hands of Paragould, Ark., next Sunday. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock, Fairgrounds Park.

The visitors lay claim to an imposing record of eight straight victories pitching their veteran moundsman, Faulkner, while the locals can point only to a successful season last year and two wins and one defeat this season. Manage Malone is meeting the demands of local fans for this by starting "Big" Burrus, hefty right hander who last season won 90 per cent of the games in which he started.

Burry was unable to finish the season last fall due to an injured thumb. He started his spring training by working for Chaffee three weeks ago, and walked from the mound with a 15-run margin of victory tucked under his belt. Malone feels that his big right hander is on a par with most of the imported products and intends to give the "Smiling Giant" a rather stiff assignment for his first Sikeston game of the spring season. Bowman will catch as usual.

Malone has received numerous letters from managers hopeful of securing a game with the locals. One of the most ambitious of the lot is credited to Mac Hagebush, manager of the Anna, Ill., ball club. Says MacHagebush in his epistle to Tom: "Kindly let me know what your guarantee would be to play a game in Anna on some Sunday in July after the 13th.

"Kelly, the Cambria manager, played here Saturday and advised us that you had a real ball club. Since we are expecting to have a big season and have such clubs as Paducah, Ky., Mt. Carmel, Harrisburg and others booked, we would like to have a game here with you and possibly a return date down there later in the season if it could be arranged".

Then follows the fireworks: "Your team would have to be of the best class and we would appreciate hearing from you at once".

Of course, Mr. Mac Hagebush may have something in his little Illinois village to set the brush afire, but his letter seemed to fire something in Manager Malone. The offer of a game F. O. B. Sikeston was written Thursday morning, but Mr. MacHagebush has not had time to answer as yet. If the Anna boys are as good as their manager admits they are, there should be one good ball game in that city on or after July 13.

Malone has booked games for the following dates:

June 8, the locals journey to Doniphan.
June 15, an undefeated Memphis Frisco team, accompanied by Jeff Frazier, division superintendent and a gang of rooters from the Tennessee "port" will be entertained here.
June 22, Osceola, Ark., here.
June 29, Doniphan here.
July 6, Cambria, Ill., in Sikeston.

REPUBLICAN

For Circuit Clerk
Cecil C. Reed

We have been feeling pretty punk of late without any just cause, so have finally come to the conclusion that we have a slight case of spring fever, or are lazy.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that the man or woman purchasing illicit liquor is guilty of no violation of the Eighteenth Amendment. We have always believed from a moral standpoint that one was just as bad as the other, but will bow to the decision of the High Court.

Connie Ritter, formerly a chief lieutenant of Charlie Birger, notorious Southern Illinois desperado, pleaded guilty in circuit court at Benton, Ill., Monday to participation in the murder of Joe Adams of West City, Ill., December 11, 1926, and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

About a half-dozen American women were presented lately at the English Court, after a wait of several hours before being admitted to the palace. Walking backward out of the presence of royalty, and the other vagaries incident to being introduced at court, no doubt lent zest and thrill to the occasion, and perhaps the hold-up at the gate will cause those who accepted it so graciously to be more tolerant amid the traffic jam of pedlar's carts and partial-payment second-hand autos at home.

We have an idea that some people are more grateful than others, if you know what we mean.

The Standard office will be closed Friday afternoon in order that all may attend memorial services here and elsewhere.

To have the sort of crops that all are hoping for, it is necessary to have a good rain about every Saturday night. Just now, one would be very acceptable on town gardens, flower beds and lawns, and farmers would not object.

Some dreary punishment, worse than solitary confinement, should be meted out to the members of the House who had to be arrested in order to make a quorum. They might be forced to read the Congressional Record covering the period of their absence.

Friday of next week, June 6, will be Democratic Day at Dexter. Some mighty good speakers will be in attendance and we feel sure there will be no sectarian or wet and dry speeches delivered. Old time Democracy will be the subject and it should appeal to the people at this time of Republican prosperity.

It is a pretty hard matter to please the public, the merchant or the undertaker. One of the latter variety was complaining to us a few days ago about the health of the community and wondered what was to become of them if this kept up. Poor fellow! We advised him to put on a sale of used and unused shrouds, coffins, etc., and try to boost business.

Diversity of interests, and the advantages arising out of proximity to the seat of government, are urged in support of a plan for dividing Texas into five States. When one recalls that the Lone Star State approximates the Republic of Germany in area, the arguments brought forward by the divisionists are not without weight; yet it is not entirely clear why diversity of interest cannot promote State as well as national welfare, and with air transportation coming rapidly to the front, and radio communication binding remote communities together, mere size will hardly justify division. Sentiment has to be considered, and it will be difficult to invoke the shades of Sam Houston and Davy Crockett in breaking up a solidarity created in the stern days of the Alamo.

California has before its courts, an action in which it is sought to bring a newspaper editor to account for a cartoon directed against a public official. Cartoons sometimes are harsh, and occasionally unjust, but the same objection may be urged against any means for the dissemination of personal opinions. The cartoon has been a faithful soldier in many a hard-fought campaign, not the mildest of which was the movement to down Boss Tweed in New York City, years ago. No lash reached Tweed's back so effectively as that of Thomas Nast, the cartoonist, and the politicians is reported to have said, in substance, that while it was difficult to get printed matter into the intelligent comprehension of the masses, anybody could understand Nast's pictures.

RANKING OF MISSOURI CITIES WILL CHANGE AS RESULT OF FINAL COUNT IN 1930 CENSUS

St. Louis.—Many Missouri cities will change in rank as result of the 1930 census.

St. Louis, of course, will remain the largest city in the State, followed by Kansas City, St. Joseph and Springfield.

St. Joseph will be edged out of position as fifth largest if University City, St. Louis suburb, shows the growth expected by real estate men and registers between 35,000 and 40,000. Webster Groves and Maplewood are other St. Louis suburbs expected to go well above 10,000.

Hannibal, seventh in the 1920 census, and Jefferson City, eighth, apparently have passed Sedalia which was sixth in place.

Cape Girardeau has shown the largest percentage growth of any city above 10,000 so far reported, with a gain of 57.5 per cent, followed closely by Jefferson City with 48.4 per cent, Springfield with 45.6 per cent and Columbia with 43.6 per cent.

The largest percentage increase of cities now between 5000 and 10,000 has been shown by Clayton, county seat of St. Louis County, with a gain of 216.7 per cent. Washington is second with 88.6 per cent, Sikeston third with 56.9 per cent and Marshall fourth with 55.4 per cent.

PLANNING TO BUILD ELEVATED ROAD ACROSS SAHARA DESERT

Paris, May 26.—Construction of a 1500-mile elevated electric railroad across the Sahara desert is under discussion in Paris. It is proposed to build a structure 12 feet above the shifting sands on concrete piles protected from nomad tribes by high tension electric wires. The estimated cost of the railroad is $117,000,000, or about one-twentieth of the French annual budget.

It is pointed out that the proposal would open a new empire in France's African possessions. The Sudan is rich in timber and minerals. These, it is estimated, would in a few years pay for the construction of the railroad.

SEDALIA MAN FINDS HEALTH IN NEW KONJOLA

Stomach And Kidney Ills Of Long Standing No Problem For New Medicine.

"I eat, sleep and feel like a different man since taking this great medicine, Konjola," said Mr. I. H. Gibson, 206 South Ohio street, Sedalia. "I suffered for years with stomach and kidney trouble. Nothing I ate agreed with me and I bloated terribly after every meal. This gas pressure made me short of breath and nauseated. My kidneys were weak and bladder actions were frequent. Splitting headaches often lasted for days.

"My kidneys were first to respond to the action of Konjola. My bladder now functions properly and I suffer no back pains and headaches. I have not enjoyed my meals in years as I do today. I never bloat after meals and my meals and my appetite is excellent. My entire system has been aided by this great medicine and I am in excellent health for the first time in many years. I enthusiastically recommend Konjola to all men and women who suffer as I did."

It is logical to believe that what Konjola has done for others it will do for you—for everyone. This is especially so if Konjola is given a fair trial and six to eight weeks is recommended as a fair test.

Konjola is sold in Sikeston at the Derris Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

There is only one universal language that all men the world over can use and understand—the language of feature and gesture.

Three-cornered wire sink baskets make good receptacles for dusty and oily cloths in the cleaning closets, as they permit a circulation of air and reduce the danger of fire. They take up very little space in a small closet.

MISS POOLE TO OPERATE COURTESY

The Courtesy Oil Station, located at Poplar and Moran Streets, a part of the New Justrite Building having been leased for same, will be operated under the supervision of Miss Myrtle H. Poole, who has been in the employ of the Justrite Oil Company and Justrite Tire Company for the past four years.

After careful consideration of the various petroleum products, it was decided that the Courtesy Oil Station should distribute Sinclair Products.

According to our knowledge, this is the first service in Poplar Bluff, to be operated under the management of a lady; however, Miss Poole states that with the co-operation of the employees of the Courtesy Oil Station, with the courteous treatment which the customers will receive at the new station, and with the quality merchandise to be sold, she is very confident that the Courtesy Oil Station will be able to build up one of the best service station businesses in the city.—Justrite News, Poplar Bluff.

Butter from pasteurized sweet cream keeps better than butter made from raw, sour cream. Cream may be pasteurized easily by putting the cream in shotgun cans or pails, placing them in a wash boiler or other container, and heating. Stir the cream occasionally while heating and keep it at a temperature of from 145° to 150°F for 25 or 30 minutes. Cool it as quickly as possible to 50°F or lower and keep it at that temperature for at least three hours before churning. This helps to make the butter granules firmer. Churn in the same way as with raw, sour cream.

Odie Bess, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bess of Cane Creek, was painfully injured Saturday afternoon, near his home, when he was dragged by a team of mules. Young Bess was piloting a load of logs down a steep hill and his foot slipped off the brake. He fell down between the mules and loaded wagon, and was dragged some distance. By a miracle, the wheels did not pass over him. His body, head and limbs, however, were a mass of cuts and bruises from rocks and stumps. The boy was brought to Poplar Bluff for treatment. He was reported getting along nicely.

Good Drivers—and Others

THE difference between good and bad driving depends almost entirely on the amount of thought and concentration the driver puts into it.

Almost invariably bad driving is the result of thoughtlessness and inattention. As a rule the new driver is more careful than the experienced one. His inexperience fills him with the full significance of his responsibility and the danger of driving.

On the other hand, the experienced driver becomes careless or, to put it more gently, over-confident of his ability. He is the one who displays this over-confidence by engaging in conversation or by looking at the scenery while driving. Driving a car requires the full attention of the driver, particularly in these days of heavy traffic.

I don't know why it is, but it seems that I am always running into the bird who stays in the middle of the road when he should be over to the right. He is the cause of many accidents and should be warned by any well-meaning driver, and certainly by law enforcement officials, that he is a nuisance and a menace. Then there is that other moron who speeds up to rush across a road just as the light is changing. It would be a real pleasure for me to tell him just exactly what I think of him.

These two examples of bad driving are direct results of thoughtlessness and recklessness and I am making it my duty to stop and talk to this sort of motorist just as a matter of motor-

ing education. In the last year, I have talked to about twenty transgressors of this type and only once has the recipient of my remarks become angry and told me to mind my own business. As it happened, I followed this driver and it was only five miles from where I first encountered him that I found him in the arms (literally) of the law. I took the trouble to add my complaint to those already lodged and I really believe he will be a better driver when he gets his license back.

It is true there is a multiplicity of driving regulations and it is equally true that it is almost impossible for the average individual to keep track of all of them. But rules of common courtesy should not have to be remembered. They should be habitual. Yet if they were observed on American highways, driving conditions would show vast improvement overnight. And such an improvement would not only net greater peace of mind for all motorists but it would save hundreds of thousands of dollars annually as a result of fewer accidents.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL FROM NEW MADRID

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Risco for J. W. Frazier, who was fatally injured when his automobile turned over last Friday, when he ran into the ditch to avoid hitting some children. After the accident, Frazier was conveyed to the hospital at Cape Girardeau, where it was found that his back was broken and his neck dislocated, and he died there Saturday morning. Two weeks ago Frazier was arrested for driving a car while intoxicated after he had turned his car over in a ditch near Risco. While Deputy Geo. Carlisle was bringing him to the County jail, he struck Carlisle, causing him to wreck the car in which they were riding, and another car was necessary to continue the trip. Frazier was alleged to be insane and was released on bond while an investigation was being made. He was under bond at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and several children.

NEW DAY IS DAWNING FOR YUCATAN INDIANS

Renaissance sweeps through Yucatan, promising that the Maya Indians as well as their famous cities have survived four centuries of eclipse.

After 400 years of patient bondage the Indians who developed the foremost early civilization of North America, who built skyscraper temples, paved roads through the jungle and developed a written language and an exact calendar, are asserting themselves.

Two-thirds of the population of the peninsula, about 250,000, is Maya: large sector of the people are mestizo, Indians with some white blood.

Outside of Merida, the capital, the language of their Maya ancestors developed at the time Roman civilization was being destroyed by the barbarians. The schools teach Maya in addition to Spanish and English.

The governor of Yucatan is a Maya. When he was inaugurated recently a 20-minute speech in Maya received a vociferous welcome from the crowd.

Native actors recently prepared a Maya musical play, "Payambe", for presentation in the historic courtyard of the pyramid temple at Chichen Itza. Maya architectural forms are being revived for modern Yucatan buildings and memorials.

"The Mayas found an inspiring leader in Felipe Carrillo Puerto", says a bulletin of the National Geographic Society.

"The martyred governor, they call him, because he was assassinated in 1923, just 22 months after he entered office and while his reformation was in full tide. But his work goes on.

"The schools go on. The leagues of resistance go on. The village baseball teams go on. The henequen cooperative goes on. The liberalized divorce laws go on. The new land laws go on. The building of good roads goes on. All these things Carrillo worked for.

"Yucatan, before the revolution of 1911, was a forsaken land ruled by a handful of landowners whose vast estates came down to them from grants given by Cortez's lieutenant, Montezuma. Landless Indians and mestizos worked the plantations, cultivating the 'green gold' henequen that Yucatan ships north as binder twine to bind the shocks of North America's bumper crops. Travelers described the natives as a patient, ignorant, uninspired people, unaware that patience was the Maya method of resistance to the white overlord.

"All Yucatan's hopes rose and fell with the price of henequen, its one major crop. So closely did the land owners concentrate on henequen that it became necessary to import staples like fruit, corn, chickens and eggs. Because he had to buy food supplies, the native was forever in debt, and therefore in bondage, to the big land owner.

"Twenty years ago 96 per cent of the heads of families in Yucatan, an agricultural State, owned no land whatsoever. As a result of the revolution, 80,000 families have been given from 30 to 40 acres of land. The big estates have not been wiped out. No large land holder was reduced to less than 1233 acres of land.

"In distributing the land, the leaders went back to the old Maya custom of communal ownership. Lands of each community are allotted to householders by a local agrarian commission. The householder may not sell the land given to him. He can cultivate it; the products of the soil are his, but the soil belongs to the community.

"Land rights gave new importance to villages and towns where local chapters of the League of Resistance sprang up over night. The life of each community is concentrated in its league, which meets once a week.

These sessions often combine the duties and pleasures of an American grange, a school board and a church supper. Conferences on farming education and the organization of a baseball team or an orchestra are sandwiched with singing, recitations of poetry and speeches.

"Modern Mayas have not revived the ball game of their ancestors, which seems to have been a type of basketball. At Chichen Itza a large court arranged for this game has been found. Instead they have turned to American baseball, although tennis, boxing and similar sports are spreading. Baseball receives credit for driving out the Spanish sport of bull fighting.

"An American archeologist, specializing on Maya ruins reports that he heard an Indian boy shout, 'Conex conex, jugar baseball, ten catcher tech pitcher'. (Come along, come along to play baseball. I catcher, you pitched), Maya, Spanish and American all in one sentence.—Commercial Appeal.

Spraying with bordeaux mixture is the best way to control the potato leaf hopper, which not only feeds on the leaves but causes hopperburn, a disease which sometimes ruins an entire potato crop in one or two weeks. When leaf hoppers are abundant make at least three applications of bordeaux, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and spray a fourth time if necessary to keep down hopperburn until the crop has matured. Spray both sides of the rows, using at least 150 pounds pressure, and see that the mixture reaches the undersides of the leaves. The 4-4-50 formula is generally used. The leaf hopper, which is one of the worst enemies of potatoes, is a very small, pale-green insect. The adult is about one-eighth of an inch long, with white markings, and has an H on its body.

"All Yucatan's hopes rose and fell with the price of henequen, its one major crop. So closely did the land owners concentrate on henequen that

When A CLEANSING MEDICINE Is Needed

"I HAVE taken Black-Draught all my life, whenever in need of a medicine for constipation," says Mrs. G. C. Burns, of Buna, Texas. "My mother and father used it in their home for years, and I was raised to think of it as the first thing if I had a headache or was constipated."

"At one time I had indigestion real bad. I was all out of sorts; my skin was sallow, and I had gas pains. After a course of Black-Draught, I got all right. I have given Black-Draught to my children, whenever they needed a medicine of the kind."
